Delaware Red Winter Apple.

This variety is now fruiting in this section of the State, and it is with much pleasure that we again call attention to it, and trust it will become justly popular in all parts of the country; except, perhaps, in the extreme north, where it may not prove sufficiently hardy to withstand their severe winters. Mr. P. H. Storm, the veteran horticulturist and fruit grower, says of it.

"Having had about fifty years experience in the cultivation of fruit, particularly apples, I have no hesitation in saying the DELAWARE WINTER heads the list. It is a vigorous grower as well as a prolific bearer. It also possesses excellent cooking qualities. Last, but not least, its keeping qualities are far beyond anything else of which I have any knowledge.

"I have eaten them the last of August, ten months after they were gathered. No special care had been taken in their preservation. I have known them exposed to climatic influences through the spring and summer, and yet they were well preserved.

They are attractive in appearance, being highly colored, red all over, of large and uniform size. It is without doubt the coming winter apple, for both North and South, as it supplies a long-felt need to both nurserymen and consumers."

ROSSNEY PEAR.

The best and handsomest pear yet produced. Hardy and productive. Ripens two weeks after Bartlett. Strong grower. Luther Burbank, the most noted horticulturist of the age, says under date of October 5, 1895: "The samples of Rossney Pear arrived in due season. The large size, handsome form, and creamy yellow skin with crimson blush gives the fruit a tempting appearance; and the tender, creamy flesh, of just the right texture, with no hard spots and an unusually small core, with its superior flavor, makes it about the best pear so far seen. If the tree is vigorous, healthy, and productive, would prefer it to any other, even the standards, Bartlett or Seckel." This is the first time this pear has been offered to the public, and is sent out under our seal and trademark. See price above.

LONGWORTH'S No. 1 PEAR.

The Pear for the Northwest. Every Tree has our Seal Attached.

This is a very hardy Seedling Pear of recent introduction; originated at Dubuque Iowa, and was grown from seed some forty years since by the veteran nurseryman and horticulturist, Wm. Longworth. The tree is a strong, upright grower, entirely FREE FROM BLIGHT, and an enormous bearer. Fruit, medium to large, nearly round; skin yellow with warm blush on the sunny side; flesh rather coarse, juicy, sugary, good flavor. Ripens from first to middle of September.

Having thoroughly tested this variety, we have no hesitancy in recommending it to the public for general planting. This pear has withstood our severest winters without the slightest injury, while other varieties were frozen to the ground. Being free from blight and EXTREMELY HARDY, it is a very desirable variety, and should be planted largely. See sizes and prices above.

GREENHOUSE AND BEDDING PLANTS.

ROSES, HARDY AND TENDER BULBS, ETC.

Thirty Thousand Square Feet Under Glass for plants and propagating purposes, give us unusual facilities; so we can truly say our plants are in most splendid health and vigor, of the best size and shape for packing, and put up in the most approved style for safe transit. They are usually sent by express, for which there are excellent facilities at this point.

Where practicable, small plants will be sent by mail, cost of postage added; we shall, however, send all packages by express at purchaser's expense, unless specially ordered otherwise. The advantages are obvious. Larger and better plants can be shipped, and they usually arrive in better order, with fibrous roots intact, ready at once to sustain life. By mail, more or less soil is removed, unavoidably breaking roots, compelling the plant to make new roots, which it does quickly if conditions are favorable, or lingers for days or even weeks before it starts, much to the annoyance of the purchaser, who, no doubt, frequently exclaims, "I wish I had taken their advice and had them sent by express." With our many years of experience, we claim to be as successful in sending by mail as any. It is, however, the unanimous verdict of all florists, that expressing has many advantages over plants sent by mail. Plants or bulbs of bulky nature will, in all cases, be sent by express or freight, Extra plants will be added to cover expressage.

Purchaser's selections gladly allowed, and the choice new varieties usually included in sets of tens, as far as practicable, without extra charge.

Time of Planting—From the time spring frosts cease up to June 15. A most admirable feature of pot-grown plants is the perfect safety and facility of using to advantage, up to a very late period, say July 10, for instance, where new places cannot be got ready in the usual spring season for planting, or where seeds, etc., have failed. The only prerequisite is to choose if possible, a moist, cloudy time for planting out, or use shade or water temporarily till rain comes. For very late planting the Monthly Roses are best for bloom; next, the quick growers and perpetual bloomers, as Ageratum, Zonal Geraniums, Cannas, Abutilons, Verbenas, Salviyas, Feverfew; and for foliage, the beautiful Alternanthera, Achyranthus, and Coleus.

We cannot afford to fill orders for less than $1.00 at the prices named herein.

ROSES.

50 at 100 rates. Not less than 5 of a variety.

We make the growing of roses a specialty. Our list of varieties has been carefully selected so as to include only the very best. We are constantly buying the newer varieties, and after giving them a fair trial, discard such as are not found worthy of cultivation and of distinct character.

OUR ROSES are all grown on their own roots, either from cuttings or layers. We do not consider budded roses good for permanent out-door planting, the difference being the Manetti or stock on which roses are budded makes such a strong growth and sends up so many suckers that it usually kills out the variety to which it is budded the first year, and takes its place, and nothing is left but the common or stock rose, unless of course the grower is very familiar with the cultivation of roses, and knows the difference between the stock and the bud and when to prune and pinch back.

ROSES FROM POTS.

From many years experience we can without any hesitation recommend Pot Grown Roses on their own roots. Hybrid Perpetuals, Hybrid Teas, Monthly, Bourbon, and China, as best for Spring planting. As is well known the Hybrid Perpetuals are all hardy. The Hybrid Tea, Bourbon, China, and Polyantha, if well started and properly grown are very hardy, and will, if suitably protected during the winter, come through in good growing condition. They should be carefully balled up, with 10 or 12 inches of soil and then covered with light mulching. More of these roses are killed by over protection than not enough.

The above classes are the freest blooming of all roses, and best for permanent planting. In shipping pot grown roses each plant is baled separately in moss, when taken from the pot and all the small fibrous roots left intact, in good growing condition, consequently the root growth is not checked by shipping, and the plant starts to grow as soon as transplanted, and is well established in the ground before the top has made a heavy growth and before the hot summer weather comes.

We claim to be as well up in rose growing as the average Florist, having had a life time experience in growing in large quantities all classes of roses, and yet in transplanting out door grown roses and wintering them in cold storage we lose a good many plants, no matter how careful we are in handling them. On the contrary, in transplanting roses from pots we never lose any plants, even when planting small roses from 2 inch pots. The reason for this is as explained above, that at the time of transplanting, the plant is intact in all its roots, stem, and branches.

We have for some years made a specialty of growing all of our roses on their own roots, and a'so a large portion of them in 4 inch pots, and that the pot plants have given entire satisfaction is fully attested by the numerous testimonials we have received from pleased customers, of their certainty of growth, hardiness, and earlier, freer, and finer blooming qualities than dormant or outdoor grown plants of these classes of roses.

Crimson Rambler .—A grand new Rose from Japan. The plant is of very vigorous growth, making shoots of from six to ten feet during the season, rendering it a charming pillar Rose. It is also magnificent in bush form. The flowers are of a glowing crimson, and are produced in great pyramidal panicles or trusses, each carrying from thirty to forty blooms, the individual flowers measuring about one to one and a half inches in diameter, and remain perfect on the plant for upwards of two weeks. The foliage is bright green and glossy and perfectly healthy. We find this Rose perfectly hardy here.

Empress of China .—We have thoroughly tested this valuable new rose for several years. Its distinct quality is its habit of true perpetual blooming, which is possessed by no other climbing rose in any where near the same degree. It is perfectly hardy, having withstood our severe winters here. The vigor of growth is unsurpassed. The flowers are small, but very delicate, waxy and fragrant, and are borne profusely. The color is a soft dark red in bud, and changes as the flower opens or grows older, to lighter shade or pink. From 2½ inch pots.....

Yellow Rambler .—(Aglia).—This rose is, we are confident, an even more valuable introduction than the Crimson Rambler, for it is the hardiest yellow climbing rose yet introduced, and quality of hardiness has been an extremely difficult one to combine with yellow color. We believe that, with very slight attention, it can be grown everywhere that other roses succeed. Yellow Rambler is a blood relation to the Crimson Rambler , which it much resembles in growth and foliage. It also blooms after the same manner as Crimson Rambler , in large trusses, often as many as 120 to 150 flowers in a bunch. The flowers are very sweetly fragrant, and last three to four weeks without fading. From 2½-inch pots.....	.10	.60	3.50

NEW GERANIUM—E. H. TREGO.

This is the best scarlet Geranium we have yet seen, and was grown by careful hybridizing from seed of Mrs. E. G. Hill, crossed by P. Crozy, by the noted florist, A. Shriver. It has proved to be the largest flower and brightest scarlet Geranium on our grounds the past summer. It cannot be excelled for bedding purposes. The color is a deep scarlet of exquisite shade. The florets are regular in form, more than semi-double, and about 2½ inches in diameter. Trusses enormously large. Foliage and habit are both good. It has also proved to be an excellent winter bloomer. This is the first time this magnificent new sort has been offered to the public. Our stock is limited. Price, 25 cents each; $2.00 per 10; $15.00 per 100.
